Regional Arts & Culture Council (RACC) advocates for increased public and private, including a workplace giving program for the arts. For more information, visit workforart.org.

RACC awards more than $3 million/year in grants—and that number will soon grow as a result of Portland’s new Arts Education & Access Fund. Deadlines and application materials at racc.org/grants.

RACC provides grants for arts education activities and integrates arts and culture into standard subjects in K-8 classrooms. For more information, visit TheRightBrainInitiative.org.

The Regional Arts & Culture Council is the leading provider of arts-related services in the Portland metropolitan area, working to make arts and culture accessible to everyone!
Mingle with RACC’s staff and local artists at Art Spark, held on the third Thursday in January, March, May, July, September and November. portlandartspark.com

Art Notes, the RACC newsletter, is chock-full of vital information for local artists: job announcements, funding opportunities, calls to artists, workshops, live-work spaces, and more. Subscribe at racc.org/artnotes.

Arts for All! Low-income Oregonians on the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program can buy tickets to hundreds of arts events for just $5 each. Visit racc.org/artsforall.

RACC.ORG
Serving Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington counties in Oregon
411 NW Park Avenue, Portland OR 97209
503-823-5258  |  info@racc.org

Through vision, leadership, and service, the Regional Arts & Culture Council (RACC) works to integrate arts and culture in all aspects of community life. RACC is a 501(c)(3) organization funded by a variety of public and private partners. Interpretation services available; call 503-823-5071.

see our commitment to equity and inclusion at racc.org/equity.

twitter.com/r_a_c_c
facebook.com/RegionalArts

Enriquecemos nuestra comunidad a través del arte y la cultura. RACC presta servicio a artistas, organizaciones sin fines de lucro y escuelas de los condados de Clackamas, Multnomah y Washington.

racc.org
411 NW Park Avenue, Portland OR 97209
503-823-5111      info@racc.org

regionalarts  r_a_c_c