ELIGIBILITY

This program is open to individual artists and creative professionals at all levels of their careers, in a broad variety of disciplines, who identify as under-represented or under-served including, but not limited to, Black, Indigenous, Latinx, Asian, Pacific Islander and People of Color; LGBTQIA+ artists; and artists with disabilities. Applicants must self-identify as an artist or creative, with an ongoing practice creating work and sharing it with the community.

In addition, to be eligible for the Urgency/Stability grant program, you must:

1. Physically reside in the City of Portland (www.portlandmaps.com).
2. Be an individual artist or creative and provide RACC with a W-9 form upon notification that you have been awarded a grant. The W-9 form must have a Social Security Number (SSN), Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN), or a single-member LLC Employer Identification Number (EIN). Make sure that your Applicant Eligibility Profile in the RACC Opportunity Portal reflects how you are legally organized and prepared to receive grant income.

RACC is serving as the administrating entity for this program, however it is not considered a RACC grant, therefore the status of any current RACC Grants you may have do not impact your eligibility for this program.

FUNDING RESTRICTIONS

1. Members of RACC team or Board of Directors are not eligible to apply.
2. Applications submitted after the stated cycle deadline will not be considered for funding until a future cycle, if available.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

There are two types of support available through a single, two-track application.

Track One: Urgency Grants, $1,000- $5,000: Beneficiaries receive Urgency Grants based on critical needs or an emergency situation resulting in outstanding costs which pose a threat to the viability of the individual's ongoing creative engagement. Please note, additional documentation of loss or emergency will be required for this track.

Some examples of what we hope to support with Urgency funds: outstanding bills for medical or mental health emergencies, costs to avoid loss of housing or regain housing, repair or replacement of essential equipment lost due to accident, theft, or damage.

Track Two: Stability Grants, $500-$3,000: Beneficiaries receive Stability Grants based on an individual's needs, which support their ongoing creative engagement.

Some examples of what we hope to support with Stability funds: purchase of artmaking materials, investment in your practice, access to studio space, or time for continued creation.

Grant amounts will be determined by the Community Review Panel.

Neither of these tracks are project-specific. These funds are intended to be an investment in artists and creatives. Grants are not contingent upon the creation or completion of a new project.

You may apply in only one of the tracks. In your application, you will be asked to submit documentation of your artistic or creative practice, current need, and financial loss related to COVID-19.

There is approximately $450,000 available. Any funds not distributed in this round will be awarded in a future round TBD.

Applications must be submitted in the RACC Opportunity Portal by June 1, 2022 at 5pm.
